REGULATIONS FOR PORTERS,

As fixed by the Magistrates, March 1st, 1798.

By an act of the Magistrates and Town Council of Glasgow, no Porter shall refuse employment when he is not otherwise engaged, under the penalty of 2s 6d sterling for the first offence, 5s for the second, and 10s for every subsequent offence; and all Porters who say they are engaged, shall specify the person by whom, and the hour at which, they are engaged, and they shall not refuse to be employed in the interval between the time they are required to serve and the hour of their engagement, under the penalties aforesaid. As the Porters who wear badges on their breast, find security for their honesty and fidelity, the Magistrates recommend it to the inhabitants to employ only those Porters in matters of importance.—The following is a Table of their fees:

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | s. | d. |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | s. | d. |
| For every cart load from or to the Broomielaw, the length of the head of Queen-street, along George-street, down Montrose-street, by the Weigh-house, Candleriggs, Bell-street, the well above the Cross, to the Spoutmouth in Gallowgate, and thence westwards, | 0  | 9  |

For every cart load of sugar to the Stockwell and Queen-street sugar-houses, when taken off with a crane, 0 7

For two puncheons of beans or meal, or two yarn bales, or any other large cask about 1 ton weight, or a cart load of cork, as much as can be laid on for the same distance, as above, 1 2

For every other place of delivery, within the Royalty or Newtown, per cart-load, 1 2

For every 10 bolls of oats, beans, and wheat, and every 8 bolls of barley, to all the granaries at the Broomielaw, Jamaica-street, Grahamston, Stockwell, and Argyll-street, the carters always finding sufficient bags, and carrying the whole of their load up one story, or into a ground flat, without any assistance from the employer, per cart, 1 0

When the cart load is to be carried up more than one story, the employer shall pay the carter, per cart, an additional 0 2

But in this last case the carter may carry up the half of the load at his own expence, the employer being at the expence of the other half.

For every cart load of grain to any other part of the Royalty or Newtown than is above stated 1 2

The carriage in this last case to be subject to the above Regulations as to delivery up one story or into a ground flat, or up more than one story.

Carters employed to remove furniture, or similar articles, that require long time to load and unload, shall be paid for the first hour they are so employed, and so proportionally for each cart, 1 0

And for every other hour, and so proportionally, for each cart, 0 9

The carter, in such cases, shall always assist in loading and unloading, but to remain always by his cart.

In all cases carters are to load and unload such articles on their carts as they are capable of doing; and in other instances they shall assist in loading and unloading their carts.

All such quantities as are to be considered as a single cart load, and likewise all rates of fares, not before specially provided for, in case of any dispute concerning these between the carter and his employer, shall be settled by the sitting magistrate.

No carters, or servants of carters, shall exact higher fares than those before specified, under the penalty of five shillings for each offence, to be levied by a summary warrant from any of the magistrates of Glasgow, and by imprisonment till payment of the fines be made, besides forfeiting the fares overcharged.
